El Salvador - La Unión

La union

Listing ID: 001463699001

This is a land located in the area called El Cocal. It is only 5 minutes away from the Central Park of La Union, and has approximately 250 meters of beach with a spectacular view of the bay of La Union. This makes it much more attractive especially for an investor or a developer, taking into account that the construction of the La Union Airport and other developments in the region will begin soon. In addition to its strategic location, it has access through several main streets of the surrounding neighborhoods. With feasibility for basic services: electricity, drinking water, drainage of surface rainwater, land and mobile telephony, cable and internet. Currently the land has no construction, rather it is full of vegetation. I have no doubt that this dream place is perfect for your development!!
