Listing ID: 40014921024

The Costa Rica's Pacific Coast has become the new favorite for business investment due to its easy access, the roads in very good condition since the construction of the southern Costanera Highway, the natural attractions of the area such as beaches, mountains, waterfalls, mangroves, impressive views, and activities such as sport fishing, diving, snorkeling and other attractions such as the iconic stone spheres and the highly recognized Boruca masks, to mention some of the cultural highlights of the area. In addition, the government's proposal to build an airport located in the canton of Osa must be added. All these factors converge to create the perfect environment for development in the medium and long term. Uvita is already well recognized for being a business center in the southern area, fast growing and a successful place for investment, with many hotels, restaurants and several services that are developed in the area, and the fact that many foreigners have decided to adopt this privileged place as their permanent home. A point with a strategic location, easy access, right between one of the main rou
