Here is a rare opportunity to purchase a commercial, road front building located near the Triangle in Coxen Hole. This 2,052 sf, single level, concrete building 36 ft. X 57 ft, offers room for expansion. Lot size is .107, but it's very feasible to build additional levels. It's no secret that Coxen Hole is currently undergoing a complete facelift. Soon, the construction dust will settle, and a thriving business sector will emerge. The building currently consists of two well established businesses and three residential apartments. There is parking in front of the building as well. Take advantage of this excellent opportunity and schedule a showing today!
