Wake up each morning to a soft mountain breeze, the sound of a year-round creek flowing gently below, and the distant call of scarlet macaws gliding overhead. This mountainside sanctuary is the kind of place where life finally slows down—where quiet, peace, and natural beauty wrap around you the moment you arrive. The land opens up with several natural building pads, each one offering sweeping, soul-stirring mountain views. Fertile, untouched soil—once home to an organic cacao farm—gives you the chance to enjoy true farm-to-table living. Imagine stepping outside to pick fresh fruit and herbs for breakfast, knowing your food comes from land that has never seen pesticides. A small waterfall hidden in the forest invites morning meditations, cool plunges, and afternoon walks shaded by towering trees. And the wildlife here isn't something you see occasionally—it's part of your everyday backdrop. Blue morpho butterflies drifting through the sunbeams, monkeys playing in the canopy, iguanas warming on the rocks, and the flash of red from the macaws when the sky opens after the r
